

MEETINGS AT THE BRUDENELL

WE'RE CLOSER THAN YOU THINK

From London and the South-East
*From the M25, exit at Junction 28 onto the A12.
Follow to the North of Ipswich and then take the A1094.
Follow the road into Aldeburgh. Turn right at the T junction just after the church. The Brudenell can be found on the sea-front at the end of the High Street.*

From the Midlands
*Take the A14 or join it at the most convenient point.
Continue to the North of Ipswich and exit at Junction 58. Take the A12 North. Directions from London/South-East then apply.*

By Rail
*The closest station is Saxmundham, which is seven miles from Aldeburgh and only two hours from London Liverpool Street Station.
Taxis can be pre-booked.*

THE AVOCET

BRUDENELL
ALDEBURGH
HOTEL | RESTAURANT | BAR

Brudenell Hotel, The Parade, Aldeburgh, Suffolk IP15 5BU

telephone: 01728 452071 | email: assistantmanager@brudenellhotel.co.uk | www.brudenellhotel.co.uk

Our place, your space....

ESCAPE THE CITY AND FIND CREATIVITY AND INSPIRATION ON THE SUFFOLK COAST

Situated in the quintessentially English seaside town of Aldeburgh, the super stylish Brudenell Hotel not only has one of the best sea views on the East Anglian coast, it also provides a setting which will effortlessly inspire discovery and creativity, as well as feeding the imagination.

In a quiet corner of this luxury hotel is the Avocet, a well proportioned room with plenty of natural daylight. Seating 20 delegates theatre-style or 18 around a boardroom table, the Avocet is equipped with state-of-the-art AV equipment, including WiFi and a 55" LCD flat screen, Blu-Ray DVD player and surround sound theatre system.

The Avocet's private sea-facing terrace is ideal for brainstorming or break-out sessions, and the invigorating, fresh smell of sea air will stimulate and rejuvenate even the weariest of delegates. It also provides a scenic setting for pre-dinner receptions.

TEAM BONDING

Set in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh and the surrounding area provides an inspirational setting for corporate events. With its wide skies, long shingle beach and gentle heathland terrain, it offers a wide range of challenging and exciting team building activities. Five minutes' drive away is our sister venue, Thorpeness Golf Club, which has the reputation of being one of the finest courses in the country. We can offer reduced green fees, or for those new to the game, introductory tuition by one of our Professionals, followed by a competition on the practice ground. We can also arrange paint balling, archery, clay pigeon shooting, bike hire, boating on Thorpeness Meare, sailing, tennis, and with a little imagination and team effort, much more.

FEED THE MIND

Suffolk is a natural larder and our award-winning head chef, Justin Kett, sources only the freshest, highest quality produce available to him from the land and sea close to Aldeburgh. Choose from the exciting and seasonally-inspired menus served in our sea-facing AA two rosette restaurant.

ZZZZRRRRR..

After a hard day's work, relax in one of our luxurious and cossetting bedrooms. Watch the sun set from one of our beautiful countryside rooms, or watch it rise from our sea-facing rooms. Sink into soft feather pillows and allow the soporific sea air to gently drift you to sleep. In the morning, our fabulous cooked Suffolk breakfast is sure to put you in good stead for the day ahead.

For more information about holding your meeting at the Brudenell, please call Joanne Francis or Francois Bruwer on 01728 452071 or email assistantmanager@brudenellhotel.co.uk